Guard Cutback to Be Costly to Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he would join other governors in opposing any effort to reduce strength of the National Guard and Reserve units.

"I am inalterably opposed to any move in this direction," Faubus said. "This is a weakening and is aimed at eventual destruction of the guard and the reserves so they can concentrate more power in Washington."

Faubus said that if a directive issued by the Pentagon Wednesday was an order, he will refuse to carry it out.

The Army's National Guard Bureau issued plans for cutting out 475 of the state's National Guard units.

The cutback would cost Arkansas 10 company-size units, state officials said Thursday.

The announcement on how the reduction would take place caused harsh comment from governors throughout the country.

Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger, Arkansas adjutant general, said Thursday Gov. Orval E. Faubus had "registered a very strong protest" with all members of the state's congressional delegation.

The proposal would eliminate one engineer battalion and one field artillery battalion in Arkansas.

Clinger said Arkansas' lone construction battalion, the 87th Engineers of Jonesboro, has a complement of 500 men.

There are two field artillery battalions in the state — the First Howitzer Battalion at Fayetteville and the Third at Harrison. Both are part of the 142nd Field Artillery.

The administration has proposed cutting the National Guard from 400,000 to 357,000 while the reserve would take a 25,000 cut, from 300,000 to 275,000.

The 1 company size units the state is slated to lose are in the Fourth Army area. Other Fourth Army area losses include nine units in Louisiana, six in New Mexico, 10 in Oklahoma and 20 in Texas.

Maj. Gen. Donald W. McGowan, chief of the National Guard Bureau, said Thursday that legally a governor must agree before any unit wholly in his state can be altered or disbanded.

"We can't say to the state... you must give up a whole battle group," McGowan told newsmen.

Second Shot Fired in Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today fired the second shot of its planned series of nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

Like the first on Wednesday, it was a detonation of a device dropped from an airplane in the vicinity of Christmas Island in the Pacific.

An announcement from the Atomic Energy Commission said the shot was touched off about 11 a.m. EST, and the detonation was in the intermediate yield range.

This description is used for a shot with a force greater than the explosive force of 20,000 tons of TNT but less than one million tons of TNT.

No details were given. The AEC announcement merely said: "A nuclear test detonation took place at about 11 a.m. EST today in the vicinity of Christmas Island. The detonation was in the intermediate yield range. The device was dropped from an airplane. The test was part of Operation Dominic now under way in the Pacific."

Weather

Total precipitation in March 2.72 inches; Total 1962 precipitation through March 14.85 inches; during the same period a year ago, 13.91 inches.

Mrs. Cora Olson, 93, Dies in Local Rest Home

Mrs. Cora Alice Olson, aged 93, died Friday in a local nursing home. She had lived here for about two years and formerly lived in Tonkawa, Okla.

From Seminole, Okla., in 1893 Mr. and Mrs. Olson made the famous Cherokee Strip land rush and homesteaded at Tonkawa where they lived for many years. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Foster B. of Tonkawa, C. C. Olson of Duncan, Okla., a daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilburn, Mena, formerly of Hope and a brother, John Caley of Whit, Texas.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Oaklawn Cemetery, near Tonkawa. Oakcrest Funeral Service will be in charge.

Two Accidents Reported Here

Two accidents were reported by City Police yesterday. On East Division Street an auto driven by Ruby Hooper went out of control, hit a parked car and went on to hit the gasoline pumps at the Fire Station. Miss Hooper was charged with failure to have a drivers license. McCutley and Ward investigated.

At the Quick-Sac parking lot about 9 p.m. an auto driven by Mrs. Wayne Whitley, Hope, backed into a parked car owned by John Bagley. Minor damage resulted, according to officers Willis and Clark.

Urges the West to Be Firm But Patient

NEW YORK (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan urges the West "to be firm but patient; never to yield and never to give ground; but never to take provocative action ourselves."

He says he believes that if the free world follows this policy, the Russians — in "maybe one, maybe two generations, maybe more" — will be ready for a better peace than one "preserved by mutual fear."

Calling President Kennedy's decision to resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere "a tragedy," he says "the world must realize the responsibility for the tragedy is not Kennedy's. It is Khrushchev's."

Macmillan says the test resumption is "a tragedy" because "it means the nuclear arms race is again in full spate."

He says Britain and the United States "maintained a voluntary moratorium of three years," which was rudely broken by the Russians last autumn.

The British Conservative party leader discussed the present state of the world, and looked into the future Thursday night in addressing 1,800 persons at the annual dinner of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Newspaper executives and their guests joined in toasts to the health of President Kennedy and Queen Elizabeth II.

The dinner ended the city's annual press week events.

Macmillan goes to Washington today for formal discussions with President Kennedy Saturday.

The prime minister was applauded warmly several times during his dinner speech—especially when he blamed Premier Khrushchev for this country's resumption of nuclear tests in the atmosphere. Macmillan was given a standing ovation at the end of his address.

Macmillan said the West should not abandon its efforts in any sphere "where we can find the possibility of some agreement between East and West to their mutual advantage and to that of the whole world."

Dean, Zorin Can't Agree as Expected

GENEVA (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told the 17-nation disarmament conference today they could not agree on outlawing war propaganda.

Dean said the Soviet proposal for a ban on war propaganda—a side issue at the disarmament parley—would violate American constitutional freedom of speech of press and of assembly. The two positions were so opposed as to be impossible to bridge, he said.

Zorin said Dean's position in their talks showed the United States is unwilling to reduce world tensions or "stop the military hysteria which is under way in the United States and in other countries linked with the military blocs."

Despite his outburst of shouting Thursday against the new American nuclear tests, Zorin made no further reference to them at today's plenary session of the conference.

Dean said the evil effects of war propaganda could best be overcome if the Soviet Union allowed its citizens to read foreign publications and listen to foreign broadcasts.

Zorin countered that without a ban on war propaganda, such dissemination of foreign information would only "create more favorable opportunities for the expansion of war propaganda."

Rail Worker to Run for Mayor

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP) — C. L. Lambert, a veteran Missouri-Pacific Railroad employee said today he will oppose incumbent L. O. McKeown for the Dermott mayor's job.

McKeown announced Thursday as a candidate for reelection. So far they are the only candidates.

New Strikes Break Out in Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — A new wave of strikes broke out in Algeria today as business leaders deplored the drastic drop in commerce caused by terrorism and insecurity.

The post offices, telephone and telegraph services, banks, gasoline service stations and the University of Algiers were affected.

The strikers joined an estimated 8,000 industrial workers in the Oran area who went on a strike of indefinite length Wednesday.

The president of the Algerian Commercial Club, Adrien Chollet, said imports from France dropped 20 per cent during the first three months of 1962, and business has fallen as much as 80 per cent in some sectors.

The provisional government, in its barricaded enclosure of Rocher Noir outside Algiers, announced it would recruit its own policemen to better protect the Moslem community from European Secret Army Organization attacks. The Moslems say policemen of their own race would be more vigilant on their behalf than Europeans.

At least two Moslems were killed and seven wounded in separate terrorist attacks today. A European policeman was shot and wounded.

Secret army commandos attacked a French stronghold in the center of Oran and kept it under fire for an hour Thursday night.

New Offer Made for Crossett Co.

NEW YORK (AP) — Georgia-Pacific Corp. directors have voted to offer $55 a share for stock in the Crossett Co. of Crossett, Ark. It was announced here Thursday.

A spokesman for the company said the price would be offered for shares owned by the Crossett family, already in escrow, and later for shares of other stockholders if Georgia-Pacific can obtain financing.

Georgia-Pacific said last week it had agreed to buy the family's shares, but the action had to be approved by the board of directors, which met in Augusta, Ga., Wednesday.

Crossett Co. stockholders met Wednesday in Crossett, and heard Peter Walzack, president of the company, say that he considered $55 a share too small a price. The Crossett Co. does not hold a majority of the stock, and the other stockholders do not have to sell.

Georgia-Pacific, a large lumber, chemical and paperboard company, has sales of close to $50 million a year and has maintained earnings at close to or better than $4 million annually for the past decade. Last year it earned $4,581,047.

Two Survive Copter Crash in Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A helicopter inspecting Alaska Scout Battalions for the Army crashed and burned Thursday. Two of the 10 men aboard survived but the fate of the others was not learned immediately.

The survivors, Sgt. James Active, Bethel, Alaska, and Sgt. John Fanning Jr., De Ridder, La., were found by natives and rushed by dog sled to a hospital at Bethel, 37 miles north of the crash site.

The helicopter, attached to the 80th Transportation Co. at nearby Fort Richardson, was taking officers from Bethel to the village of Chelefnak only a short distance away.

Others aboard the helicopter were Col. Thomas Dallas, Juneau, senior Army adviser to the Alaska National Guard; Capt. Stanley L. Smith, Bethel, commander of the 2nd Scout Battalion; Maj. Charles Slogdill, Webb City, Mo., of the U.S. Army Alaska intelligence office at Fort Richardson; SWO William Wheatley of Danville, W. Va., the pilot; CWO Wiley Westbrook, Dixons Mill, Ala., the copilot; and Spec. 5 June Van Pelt, the crew chief from Charleston, Va.

Names of the other two passengers were withheld.

Ground parties have been sent to the crash scene.

China Says U2 Planes Active

TOKYO (AP) — Red China today charged Chinese Nationalist pilots in American U2 planes had made repeated spy flights over the southeast coast of the China mainland.

It was the first time the Reds accused Chiang Kai-shek's pilots of flying U2s.

The Chinese charge, published by the official New China News Agency, did not go into details. It was part of a review of alleged intrusions by American warships and planes.

Nine Injured in Texarkana Rail Wreck

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — At least nine people were injured when a Kansas City Southern passenger train collided with a switch train three miles south of here today, police said.

No one was thought to be seriously hurt.

The KCS crack Southern Belle, en route from New Orleans to Kansas City, crashed into a string of gondola cars hauling creosote railroad ties out of the International Creosote Co. plant.

E. R. Holcomb, KCS agent, said the engineer and fireman on the passenger train "did everything they could" when they saw a wreck was imminent, then jumped. They were slightly hurt. The other seven injured were passengers, Police said.

The switch engine pulling the gondola cars out of the plant had to cross the main KCS line, Holcomb said.

"We don't know who was at fault," he said. "The whole system is controlled by a block switch." The crash occurred in a hard rain.

The passenger train's diesel engine was jerked to a 45 degree angle and the baggage car was derailed. One gondola car was demolished and creosote ties were scattered over the area.

The injured were taken to Texarkana hospitals. Their names were not available immediately. Holcomb said he did not know the names of the engineer and fireman on the passenger train.

The wreck occurred near Highway 59 south.

Confidence Vote for French Leader

PARIS (AP) — The French National Assembly gave Premier Georges Pompidou a 259-128 vote of confidence today.

The vote clearly reflected criticism that deputies had expressed of President Charles de Gaulle's European unity plans and fears that the French constitution may be further changed to reduce the power of Parliament.

This was Pompidou's baptism of fire in the National Assembly. He formed his government only 10 days ago to replace the outgoing Cabinet of Michel Debre. Pompidou never has been a member of Parliament, and this was also interpreted as a rebuff for the legislature.

Only 387 of the 551 deputies cast valid ballots, and 119 abstained.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

W. F. Fawler, who knows about the stars, planets etc. gives us this data about outer space.

Bold explorers of space may look forward to reaching the moon, and planets, but not the stars... to explain this situation we are to imagine, that we have perfected a space vehicle capable of traveling at a speed of 25 miles a second, of 90,000 miles per hour, with such a space ship, it would be possible to get to the moon in a little less than three hours, and to get to Mars when it is nearest earth would take 18 days.

... however the journey to Pluto the outermost planet of the solar system would take four and a half years... When we turn to the stars, we begin to get an idea of the size of space, and the difficulty, if not impossibility of ever reaching them... it would take our space ship 30,000 years to get to Alpha Centauri, the star that is nearest to the earth, to get to the center of our galaxy or Milky Way would take 500 million years... If we think of leaving the galaxy and visiting a spiral nebulae, the situation is absolutely hopeless, it would take our space ship 15 billion years to reach the Andromeda Nebulae, the spiral nebulae that is nearest to us, it is about 20,000 light years to the center of the galaxy and more than a million light years to the Andromeda Nebulae.

A group from Hope attended a meeting of ministers and a District Conference of the WSCS held in Texarkana Wednesday at the College Hill Methodist Church. Those making the trip included Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Moore, Rev. and Mrs. Rufus Sorrells, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery, Rev. Joe Jones, Mrs. William Reinhardt, Mrs. Albert Graves, Mrs. E. P. Young Jr., Mrs. F. C. Crow, Mrs. Cecil Weaver, Mrs. Bob Turner, Mrs. Arch Wylie, Mrs. Steven Bader, Mrs. Johnnie Green, Mrs. Edwin Ward and Mrs. J. W. Turner.

Birkett Wylie has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. He will be joined in Germany in the near future by his wife, Barbara. Sgt. Wylie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Wylie of Hope.

Mrs. Fred Camp underwent surgery this morning and is reportedly doing fine... she is in Room 203, St. Michael's Hospital.

New Candidate in Race for Governor

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas governor's race got another surprise candidate today — Rolfe Eldridge, a retired implement dealer from Augusta.

Eldridge signed party and corrupt practices pledges in the secretary of state's office, but he did not pay the $1,500 filing fee.

Eldridge said he had $1,500 in his pocket which he had "saved for emergency," but he decided on his way to Little Rock this morning not to pay the fee until next Wednesday, shortly before the democratic ticket closes at noon.

Eldridge is a half brother to state Sen. John O. Eldridge of Augusta.

He says he decided to run for governor because he was "a free enterpriser and a states righter," and he did not see anyone now in the race whose philosophies of government compared with his.

Eldridge said he had enough personal funds to get his campaign started and "I'm not going to ask anyone for contributions."

He had Secretary of State Naney Hall bring out a Bible and he swore on the book that he had not discussed his candidacy with Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

"No one knows I'm here but myself and Mrs. Hall," he said. "Nobody put me into this race."

Eldridge said he had been active in the past in campaigns of four or five governors and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., but his only experience with public office was as a member of the Augusta City Council for eight years.

Eldridge said he did not support Faubus in 1954, but he did support the governor in 1956, 1958 and 1960. He said he is prepared to run against Faubus this year. He would not explain what actions of Faubus had taken him out of the governor's camp.

A lifelong resident of Augusta, Eldridge is married and has one son, John Rolfe, 36, who manages the implement business.

Eldridge said he would return to Augusta to work in a church building fund campaign through the weekend and he would be out of the state on business Monday or Tuesday. He said he would return to Little Rock to pay the fee Wednesday morning.

Former Gov. Sid McMath indicated in Fort Smith today that he might run for governor with less than $100,000 in his campaign kitty.

"I don't have to have $100,000, but I'm shooting at that mark," McMath told newsmen after a fund-raising breakfast.

The breakfast followed a closed meeting at Fort Smith Thursday night. McMath said $2,500 in cash and an undetermined amount in pledges was raised at the two gatherings. About 50 businessmen attended the night meeting and about 40 were at the breakfast.

McMath said he will announce definitely Saturday whether he is in the race.

McMath said in a statement Thursday that if he got $100,000 he would run regardless of what Gov. Orval E. Faubus does. He said Thursday he had about $60,000 in the pot.

Faubus announced his retirement March 31 but he has been reconsidering his decision and friends are confidently predicting he will seek a fifth term.

Faubus has indicated he won't announce his plans until shortly before the Democratic ticket closes May 2.

Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, one of the announced candidates said he would file for the position and pay the $1,500 fee at 2 p. m. today.

Only two hopefuls, Rep. Dale Alford of Little Rock and Kenneth Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney, have paid the filing fee.

David Cox of near Weiner, who announced his candidacy last week, has filed but hasn't paid the fee. Odell Dorsey of North Little Rock has announced but not filed.

Guard Cutback to Be Costly to Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he would join other governors in opposing any effort to reduce strength of the National Guard and Reserve units.

"I am inalterably opposed to any move in this direction," Faubus said. "This is a weakening and is aimed at eventual destruction of the guard and the reserves so they can concentrate more power in Washington."

Faubus said that if a directive issued by the Pentagon Wednesday was an order, he will refuse to carry it out.

The Army's National Guard Bureau issued plans for cutting out 475 of the state's National Guard units.

The cutback would cost Arkansas 10 company-size units, state officials said Thursday.

The announcement on how the reduction would take place caused harsh comment from governors throughout the country.

Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger, Arkansas' adjutant general, said Thursday Gov. Orval E. Faubus had "registered a very strong protest" with all members of the state's congressional delegation.

The proposal would eliminate one engineer battalion and one field artillery battalion in Arkansas.

Clinger said Arkansas' lone construction battalion, the 87th Engineers of Jonesboro, has a complement of 500 men.

There are two field artillery battalions in the state — the First Howitzer Battalion at Fayetteville and the Third at Harrison. Both are part of the 142nd Field Artillery.

The administration has proposed cutting the National Guard from 400,000 to 367,000 while the reserve would take a 25,000 cut, from 300,000 to 275,000.

The 1 company size units the state is slated to lose are in the Fourth Army area. Other Fourth Army area losses include nine units in Louisiana, six in New Mexico, 10 in Oklahoma and 20 in Texas.

Maj. Gen. Donald W. McGowan, chief of the National Guard Bureau, said Thursday that legally a governor must agree before any unit wholly in his state can be altered or disbanded.

"We can't say to the state . . . you must give up a whole battle group," McGowan told newsmen.

Second Shot Fired in Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today fired the second shot of its planned series of nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

Like the first on Wednesday, it was a detonation of a device dropped from an airplane in the vicinity of Christmas Island in the Pacific.

An announcement from the Atomic Energy Commission said the shot was touched off about 11 a. m. EST, and the detonation was in the intermediate yield range.

This description is used for a shot with a force greater than the explosive force of 20,000 tons of TNT but less than one million tons of TNT.

No details were given. The AEC announcement merely said: "A nuclear test detonation took place at about 11 a. m. EST today in the vicinity of Christmas Island. The detonation was in the intermediate yield range. The device was dropped from an airplane. The test was part of Operation Dominic now under way in the Pacific."

Mrs. Cora Olson, 93, Dies in Local Rest Home

Mrs. Cora Alice Olson, aged 93, died Friday in a local nursing home. She had lived here for about two years and formerly lived in Tonkawa, Okla.

From Seminole, Okla. in 1893 Mr. and Mrs. Olson made the famous Cherokee Strip land rush and homesteaded at Tonkawa where they lived for many years. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Foster B. of Tonkawa, C. C. Olson of Duncan, Okla., a daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilburn, Mena, formerly of Hope and a brother, John Caley of Whit, Texas.

Two Accidents Reported Here

Two accidents were reported by City Police yesterday. On East Division Street an auto driven by Ruby Hooper went out of control to hit a parked car and went on to hit the gasoline pumps at the Fire Station. Miss Hooper was charged with failure to have a driver's license. McCulley and Ward investigated.

Urges the West to Be Firm But Patient

NEW YORK (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan urges the West "to be firm but patient; never to yield and never to give ground; but never to take provocative action ourselves."

He says he believes that if the free world follows this policy the Russians in "maybe one, maybe two generations, maybe more" will be ready for a better peace than one "preserved by mutual fear."

Calling President Kennedy's decision to resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere "a tragedy," he says "the world must realize the responsibility for the tragedy is not Kennedy's. It is Khrushchev's."

Macmillan says the test resumption is tragic because "it means the nuclear arms race is again in full spate."

He says Britain and the United States "maintained a voluntary moratorium of three years, which was rudely broken by the Russians last autumn."

The British Conservative party leader discussed the present state of the world and looked into the future Thursday night in addressing 1,800 persons at the annual dinner of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Newspaper executives and their guests joined in toasts to the health of President Kennedy and Queen Elizabeth II.

The dinner ended the city's annual press week events.

Macmillan goes to Washington today for formal discussions with President Kennedy Saturday.

The prime minister was applauded warmly several times during his dinner speech—especially when he blamed Premier Khrushchev for this country's resumption of nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

Macmillan said the West should not abandon its efforts in any sphere "where we can find the possibility of some agreement between East and West to their mutual advantage and to that of the whole world."

Dean, Zorin Can't Agree as Expected

GENEVA (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told the 17-nation disarmament conference today they could not agree on outlawing war propaganda.

Dean said the Soviet proposal for a ban on war propaganda—a side issue at the disarmament parley—would violate American constitutional freedom of speech of press and of assembly. The two positions were so opposed as to be impossible to bridge, he said.

Zorin said Dean's position in their talks showed the United States is unwilling to reduce world tensions or "stop the military hysteria which is under way in the United States and in other countries linked with the military blocs."

Despite his outburst of shouting Thursday against the new American nuclear tests, Zorin made no further reference to them at today's plenary session of the conference.

Dean said the evil effects of war propaganda could best be overcome if the Soviet Union allowed its citizens to read foreign publications and listen to foreign broadcasts.

Zorin countered that without a ban on war propaganda, such dissemination of foreign information would only "create more favorable opportunities for the expansion of war propaganda."

Rail Worker to Run for Mayor

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP) — C. L. Lambert, a veteran Missouri-Pacific Railroad employee said today he will oppose incumbent L. O. McKeown for the Dermott mayor's job.

McKeown announced Thursday as a candidate for reelection. So far they are the only candidates.

New Strikes Break Out in Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — A new wave of strikes broke out in Algeria today as business leaders deplored the drastic drop in commerce caused by terrorism and insecurity.

The post offices, telephone and telegraph services, banks, gasoline service stations and the University of Algiers were affected.

The strikers joined an estimated 8,000 industrial workers in the Oran area who went on a strike of indefinite length Wednesday.

The provisional government, in its barricaded enclosure of Rocher Noir outside Algiers, announced it would recruit its own policemen to better protect the Moslem community from European Secret Army Organization attacks. The Moslems say policemen of their own race would be more vigilant on their behalf than Europeans.

At least two Moslems were killed and seven wounded in separate terrorist attacks today. A European policeman was shot and wounded.

Secret army commandos attacked a French stronghold in the center of Oran and kept it under fire for an hour Thursday night.

New Offer Made for Crossett Co.

NEW YORK (AP) — Georgia-Pacific Corp. directors have voted to offer $55 a share for stock in the Crossett Co. of Crossett, Ark. It was announced here Thursday.

A spokesman for the company said the price would be offered for shares owned by the Crossett family, already in escrow, and later for shares of other stockholders if Georgia-Pacific can obtain financing.

Georgia-Pacific said last week it had agreed to buy the family's shares, but the action had to be approved by the board of directors, which met in Augusta, Ga., Wednesday.

Crossett Co. stockholders met Wednesday in Crossett, and heard Peter Watzek, president of the company, say that he considered $55 a share too small a price. The Crossett Co. does not build a majority of the stock, and the other stockholders do not have to sell.

Georgia-Pacific, a large lumber, chemical and paperboard company, has sales of close to $50 million a year and has maintained earnings at close to or better than $4 million annually for the past decade. Last year it earned $4,581,047.

Two Survive Copter Crash in Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A helicopter inspecting Alaska Scout Battalions for the Army crashed and burned Thursday. Two of the 10 men aboard survived but the fate of the others was not learned immediately.

The survivors, Sgt. James Active, Bethel, Alaska, and Sgt. John Pannin Jr., De Ridder, La., were found by natives and rushed by dog sled to a hospital at Bethel, 37 miles north of the crash site.

The helicopter, attached to the 80th Transportation Co. at nearby Fort Richardson, was taking officers from Bethel to the village of Cheyenne only a short distance away.

Others aboard the helicopter were Col. Thomas Dallas, Juneau, senior Army adviser to the Alaska National Guard; Capt. Stanley L. Smith, Bethel, commander of the 2nd Scout Battalion; Maj. Charles Stogdill, Webb City, Mo., of the U.S. Army Alaska intelligence office at Fort Richardson; SWO William Wheatley of Danville, Va., the pilot; CWO Wiley West, Brook, Dicks Mill, Ala., the crew chief from Charleston, Va.

Names of the other two passengers were withheld. Ground parties have been sent to the crash scene.

China Says U2 Planes Active

TOKYO (AP) — Red China today charged Chinese Nationalist pilots in American U2 planes had made repeated spy flights over the southeast coast of the China mainland.

It was the first time the Reds accused Chiang Kai-shek's pilots of flying U2s.

The Chinese charge, published by the official New China News Agency, did not go into details. It was part of a review of alleged intrusions by American warships and planes.

Nine Injured in Texarkana Rail Wreck

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — At least nine people were injured when a Kansas City Southern passenger train collided with a switch train three miles south of here today, police said.

No one was thought to be seriously hurt.

The KCS crack Southern Belle, en route from New Orleans to Kansas City, crashed into a string of gondola cars hauling creosote railroad ties out of the International Creosote Co. plant.

E. R. Holcomb, KCS agent, said the engineer and fireman on the passenger train "did everything they could" when they saw a wreck was imminent, then jumped. They were slightly hurt. The other seven injured were passengers, police said.

The switch engine pulling the gondola cars out of the plant had to cross the main KCS line, Holcomb said.

"We don't know who was at fault," he said. "The whole system is controlled by a block switch." The crash occurred in a hard rain.

The passenger train's diesel engine was jerked to a 45 degree angle and the baggage car was derailed. One gondola car was demolished and creosote ties were scattered over the area.

The injured were taken to Texarkana hospitals. Their names were not available immediately. Holcomb said he did not know the names of the engineer and fireman on the passenger train.

The wreck occurred near Highway 59 south.

Confidence Vote for French Leader

PARIS (AP) — The French National Assembly gave Premier Georges Pompidou a 259-128 vote of confidence today.

The vote clearly reflected criticism that deputies had expressed of President Charles de Gaulle's European unity plans and fears that the French constitution may be further changed to reduce the power of Parliament.

This was Pompidou's baptism of fire in the National Assembly. He formed his government only 10 days ago to replace the outgoing Cabinet of Michel Debre. Pompidou never has been a member of Parliament, and this was also interrupted as a rebuff for the legislature.

Only 387 of the 551 deputies cast valid ballots, and 119 abstained.

New Candidate in Race for Governor

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas governor's race got another surprise candidate today — Rolfe Eldridge, a retired implement dealer from Augusta.

Eldridge signed party and corrupt practices pledges in the secretary of state's office, but he did not pay the $1,500 filing fee.

Eldridge said he had $1,500 in his pocket which he had "saved for emergency," but he decided on his way to Little Rock this morning not to pay the fee until next Wednesday, shortly before the democratic ticket closes at noon.

Eldridge is a half brother to state Sen. John O. Eldridge of Augusta.

He says he decided to run for governor because he was "a free enterpriser and a states righter", and he didnot see anyone now in the race whose philosophies of government compared with his.

He had Secretary of State Nancy Hall bring out a Bible and he swore on the book that he had not discussed his candidacy with Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

"No one knows I'm here but myself and Mrs. Hall," he said. "Nobody put me into this race."

Eldridge said he had been active in the past in campaigns of four or five governors and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., but his only experience with public office was as a member of the Augusta City Council for eight years.

Eldridge said he did not support Faubus in 1954, but he did support the governor in 1956, 1958 and 1960. He said he is prepared to run against Faubus this year. He would not explain what actions of Faubus had taken him out of the governor's camp.

A lifelong resident of Augusta, Eldridge is married and has one son, John Rolfe, 36, who manages the implement business.

Eldridge said he would return to Augusta to work in a church building fund campaign through the weekend and he would be out of the state on business Monday or Tuesday. He said he would return to Little Rock to pay the fee Wednesday morning.

Former Gov. Sid McMath indicated in Fort Smith today that he might run for governor with less than $100,000 in his campaign kitty.

"I don't have to have $100,000, but I'm shooting at that mark," McMath told newsmen after a fund-raising breakfast.

The breakfast followed a closed meeting at Fort Smith Thursday night. McMath said $2,500 in cash and an undetermined amount in pledges was raised at the two gatherings. About 50 businessmen attended the night meeting and about 40 were at the breakfast.

McMath said he will announce definitely Saturday whether he is in the race.

McMath said in a statement Thursday that if he got $100,000 he would run regardless of what Gov. Orval E. Faubus does. He said Thursday he had about $60,000 in the pot.

Faubus announced his retirement March 31 but he has been reconsidering his decision and friends are confidently predicting he will seek a fifth term.

Faubus has indicated he won't announce his plans until shortly before the Democratic ticket closes May 2.

Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, one of the announced candidates said he would file for the position and pay the $1,500 fee at 2 p. m. today.

Only two hopefuls, Rep. Dale Alford of Little Rock and Kenneth Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney, have paid the filing fee.

David Cox of near Weiner, who announced his candidacy last week, has filed but hasn't paid the fee. Odell Dorsey of North Little Rock has announced but not filed.

Coffelt paid the filing fee Thurs-

Proclamation

As Americans we cherish individual freedom as a birthright.
Every citizen of this community depends upon laws and courts to protect his rights. To safeguard his person and property, and to enable him to enjoy the privileges of life in a free society.

Without laws predicated upon equal justice, and independent courts to administer them, the liberties we take for granted would be meaningless. Our legal and judicial systems are foundation stones upon which rest our representative government, our economic well-being, and our whole social order.

The Congress of the U.S. and the President by official proclamation, have set aside May 1st as a special day for recognizing the place of law in American life.
Known as "Law Day—USA", the observance will take the form of programs sponsored by various organizations in the schools and in appropriate public ceremonies.
The basic aims of Law Day are to foster increased respect for law and a broader awareness of the benefits and also responsibilities of citizenship.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Frank
Douglas, Mayor of the City of Hope, Ark. do hereby proclaim
Tuesday, May 1, 1962, as LAW
DAY — USA in the City of Hope,
Arkansas and call upon all citizens, organizations and schools to give appropriate recognition to this public day.

FRANK DOUGLAS
Mayor of Hope, Ark.
Date: April 25, 1962

All Tests to Be Announced

WASHINGTON (AP)—All of the American nuclear tests in the Pacific will be announced when they are held—a departure from past practice.

A spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission said in answer to a question:
"All tests will be announced.
The plan is to announce each test individually."

Man Is Sentenced

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP)—T. W.
Alexander, 40, of Mount Ida was sentenced to 21 years in prison
Monday after pleading guilty to assault with intent to rape. He was sentenced under a reduced charge. The victim of Alexander's alleged attack was described as a mentally retarded 72-year-old Mount Ida woman.

Going to Ethiopia

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Jim Pat
Batson, 21, has been assigned to a teaching post in Ethiopia as a member of the Peace Corps. Batson, an art major at Ouachita Baptist College, will begin three months of training June 5.

THE LAW... WELLSPRING OF LIBERTY

THE CONSTITUTION AND BILL OF RIGHTS

The Constitution of The United States of America, together with the subsequent amendments called the Bill of Rights, opened portals of freedom for all. Gladstone termed it "the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man."

The foundation of law laid down in the Constitution made possible the flowering of our whole social order. Equal justice under law became an American tradition.

This year we celebrate the 175th anniversary of the drafting of our basic charter in the Constitutional Convention of 1787. Today, more than ever, the rule of law is indispensable in our daily lives and to the hopes of mankind for a peaceful world.

On May first of 1962 we observe another significant day—the fifth anniversary of Law Day USA. We do so by Act of Congress, and by official proclamation of the President of the United States. It is an occasion for American citizens to "rededicate themselves to the ideals of freedom and justice under law
... to cultivate respect for law ... to foster understanding and appreciation of our liberties and the legal and judicial institutions which protect them."

In these days of challenge to the concept of human freedom and dignity, these objectives are especially timely and important to Americans determined to preserve the values of our free society.

This message is published in recognition of the nationwide observance of Law Day USA on May 1.

Bridge Luncheon Held

Mrs. C. Stuart Jr., entertained with a bridge-luncheon at the farm cottage of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Daniel, near Prescott on Tuesday. Attractive spring flowers made pretty decorations. After a tasty meal, bridge was played at two tables. High scorer was Mrs. Wayne Russell. Mrs. Homer Jones was second high and the game prize went to Mrs. Floyd Leverett.

Tuesday Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Tom Middlebrooks was the guest of the Tuesday Bridge Club that met with Mrs. C. C. Lewis on April 24. Pretty Easter lilies were seen in the home, where bridge was played at two tables. When scores were tallied, Mrs. K. G. Hamilton and Mrs. Middlebrooks were high. Dessert was served with coffee for refreshments.

Girl Scout Troop 149 Meets

Girl Scout Troop 149 met April 20 in the home of Mrs. Stephen Bader. Refreshments were served by Charlotte Moore. The president called the meeting to order and led the troop in the promise. The secretary read the minutes and the treasurer's report was given. Mrs. Bader taught songs to the group and the meeting was adjourned.

Gierth-Avery Vows Pledged

Miss Edna Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Artie Avery of Prescott became the bride of Roy Lee Gierth, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gierth of Prescott at 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 25 in the Belhel Baptist Church, Prescott. Rev. N. C. Bryan officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar of spring flowers. The bride, entering with the groom, was lovely in a white silk organza over tulle waist length gown. Her shoulder length veil fell from a velvet tiara and she carried white carnations with satin streamers tied in love knots. Preceding the ceremony Miss Charlotte Avery, sister of the bride, lighted the candles after which Mrs. Sellers Cope sang "I Love You Truly". Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. The bridal table was beautifully decorated with a lace cloth centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom encircled with white carnations. Mrs. W. S. Cope served the punch and Mrs. Bud Huskey served the cake. For a wedding trip the couple went to the Ozarks.

More About the Roaming Romance

ROME (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton narrowly escaped injury in a pre-dawn auto accident today and several hours later the Welsh actor appeared with his wife, Sybil, at Rome's airport.

Burton and his wife drove to the airport to meet their daughter, Katy, 4, who flew in from London. Before their appearance at the field there had been a series of reports and denials of Mrs. Burton's presence in Rome. One spokesman for Burton said Mrs. Burton had been here since Sunday.

That was the day Burton and Miss Taylor were on an Easter holiday at Porto Santo Stefano, about 100 miles north of Rome. They were reported to have had a violent quarrel there on Monday and Miss Taylor returned to Rome alone.

The auto accident today was the first time Miss Taylor and Burton are known to have been together since their quarrel. The car in which they were riding blew a tire and went into a ditch near their villas.

Burton and Miss Taylor walked away from the accident to Miss Taylor's villa. Roughly 10 hours later he was seen coming out of his own villa with his wife and they drove to the air field.

Burton, 36, who plays Mark Antony to Miss Taylor's Cleopatra in a 20th Century Fox film now shooting, has been her almost constant companion since her marriage to singer Eddie Fisher went on the rocks earlier this month.

Marriage a Partnership

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I always thought married life a partnership. My husband disputes this. When I suggest that we arrange parties, trips and vacations beforehand, he hits the ceiling. Yet, if only from a practical standpoint, this would give me a chance to invite congenial guests, plan the food and have the proper dress for parties; get the best train, plane and hotel reservations on our trips and, as a result, help save toward the holiday.

If done together, this could be a fun time. But, to keep peace in our family, I must remain silent then spring into action at the 11th hour with the agility of a mountain goat. My husband is the type who stalks out mum as a clam in the morning, returns wild with excitement at night, yelling, as he unlocks the front door, "Get packed. We're leaving on the midnight plane for Podusk," or "Call up the Joneses and the Smiths and the Who's - Its. I'm in the mood for a party tomorrow evening." This duces me to a pulp, being unprepared and tense—never knowing which way my husband is going to jump. Help — Bewildered

Dear Bewildered: You're right, marriage is a partnership. Where one gives up and the other dominates, that's dictatorship. But this partnership business can be carried too far. A partner must give as well as take and, above all, respect the other person's rights.

In the ideal marriage, husband and wife each have their own province—the one in which they are best qualified to manage. In the old days, the wife excelled in the management of the home and the husband in making the money to support them and it. Now, the picture is confused and, more often than not, the wife is in complete charge. That is probably why, instinctively, your husband rebels against letting you in on any arrangements, fearing that once in the know, you'll take over.

If you're clever, you won't. Learn to live with your husband's idiosyncracies. Be flexible. Start a card index of guests likely to accept last - minute invitations. Practice making casserole dishes for buffet suppers. Keep a traveling wardrobe as well as a traveling bag half-packed with toilet necessities for sudden trips. Once you learn to take your husband's brainstorms in your stride, he may take you into his confidence. And remember that many wives with stick - in-the-mud husbands would love to have one like yours!

Dear Helen: Warn your readers about the dangers of families becoming too closely knit. I have seen the sad results of over-devotion.

Among my friends are a brother and sister; he is 23, she 27. They are two in a family of 11 children. With a family this size, tonight, Saturday he appears at their mother didn't have time to give each child the attention it craved. And, as in every family, some required more than others. Those who feel the neglect of the mother most, seek attention elsewhere.

The brother and sister are so close she finds it increasingly difficult to adjust to married life and her new husband.

When the brother marries, I fear there will be a constant conflict between her and his wife. The sister is very dominating. Is it too late to help them? —P.

Dear P.: It is they, not you, who should help themselves. Whether or not they can depends, to a large extent, upon the kind of people they marry. If the sister's husband recognizes the situation, yet loves her enough to care what happens, the break can be made without too much heartache, especially if they move to a distant city.

Then the brother, left to himself, will gradually adjust and seek the normal relationship of marriage. It has often been said that people marry their problems. Therefore we may presuppose that he will marry a woman as dominant as his sister.

Here's hoping she is not only dominant but understanding enough to cope with the situation. They should all start with the premise that no problem exists—however complex, which cannot be solved. But, they must first recognize it as a problem.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Keystones of The Home."

Both, however, charged Thursday the several potential gubnerial candidates were forced from the race because of a lack of financial support.

Melton at one time cited a lack of financial support and said he wouldn't run. He later changed his mind.

McMath accused Faubus in the Thursday statement of being responsible for the money freeze while Coffelt said moneyed interests were attempting to prove that candidates need their support in order to run.

Benson Hasn't Made Decision

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College, said Thursday he has made no definite decision about opposing Sen. J. William Fulbright's re-election bid.

Benson, who has never before sought public office, indicated March 27 that he was considering running against Fulbright and would announce his decision within 30 days.

"I still have several days yet," Benson said, referring to the May 2 filing deadline.

Benson also heads the National Education Program which held its annual Freedom Forum last week.

the dedication of the Mar-Bax Shirt Co. plant at Gassville. He leaves Sunday to attend a dinner in Washington honoring Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark.

State Sprinter Among Top 10

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Wilbur Owen, Arkansas State Teachers College sprinter, is listed in the top 10 in three events in the latest NATA track statistics.

Owen is ranked fourth in the 220-yard low hurdles with a time of 23.3 seconds, tied for sixth in the 100-yard dash with a 9.7 time, and tied for seventh in the 220-yard dash with a 21.6 clocking.

Ronnie Itern, an ASTC high jumper, was listed fourth with a leap of 6-5. Donnie Ketchside of ASTC was listed fourth in the discus throw with a heave of 156.5.

Fulbright was the target of much criticism during the forum.

Benson originally was scheduled to leave this week on a South American tour but said his departure would be postponed.

He gave no indication if politics played in the postponement.

Passenger Business Remains Our Business

You may have heard it said that railroads want to get out of the passenger business—an erroneous conclusion probably based upon the discontinuance of some trains no longer used by the public.

Here at Kansas City Southern we feel we have an obligation to provide good and ample passenger service to the people of our area. Yet we have reduced the number of our passenger trains since the peak war years—but only after convincing (and costly) proof that you, our patrons, no longer considered the service necessary.

We have no intention of going out of the passenger business. Rather, we hope to improve our service so that you and others may have the benefit of the safest, most enjoyable, most economical way to travel.

We earnestly seek your help to this end!

BANKING ON DEATH

BY EMMA LATHEN

Chapter 35

"It's that Mr. Schneider again," said Miss Corsa in the tone of one washing her hands of the situation. "You saw him last time without an appointment, and I thought you might want to do it again."

"Hm, that certainly is awkward. You'd better show him in. I see no reason why we should be embarrassed," he ended firmly.

It was too late to ask why anyone should be embarrassed, for Arthur Schneider was striding buoyantly in the room.

"Now, I won't take much of your time today," he began as soon as the round of greetings was over. "I've come from the hospital. Poor Hilda just died, and I stopped in to let you know that you could start to draw up the papers immediately."

But Thatcher held up an imperative hand. "Before you go any further, it is only right that you should know that I just received a telephone call from the Buffalo Police. They have found the baggage check which you left behind in Robert Schneider's apartment and they have checked with the airport about your stopover. I expect that you will be arrested before the day is out unless you leave for Massachusetts instantly. Even there it will only be a matter of time."

Arthur Schneider, whose joviality, irritation and anger were always freely and loudly expressed, sat silent for a long time before he spoke. "It's always been a matter of time. I never expected to get away with it, you know," he said emotionlessly. "I just wanted to see my family before I was arrested. But they never came to arrest me, and then I began to forget that it really was a murder that I had committed."

"But, you were in Washington!" Kenneth had finally found his voice. "Not until later," Schneider smiled at him calmly. We were grounded in Buffalo. I wanted to talk to Robert about the Beloit contract. I called him from the airport, and he agreed that he would be at home. I took the limousine because there weren't any taxis. Later on after—after I had killed him—I ran back to the Staller and took the limousine back to the airport. They were just announcing the departure of my plane. There was a slight clearing in the weather then, and they were getting a few planes out. They don't usually close down airports for an entire day, you know. They open them up whenever there's a break."

Kenneth remembered that Thatcher had made this point when he was discussing Jane's alibi. "I was in Buffalo two and a half hours. On the plane all I could think of was getting home and explaining to Josephine—my wife—what had happened. But the plane was rerouted and we didn't go to Boston. I thought about going to Grace, but I couldn't put her in the position of having her brother arrested in her house, could I?"

"No," said Thatcher slowly, "you couldn't do that."

"It was only when I got home that I realized that everybody thought the plane had gone directly from Chicago to Washington. Airlines don't usually mention unscheduled stopovers, even to the people who are waiting. I knew it wouldn't make any difference in the long run, but it gave me some time with my family."

"When did you realize that you'd lost your baggage check?" asked Thatcher.

"What's so important about the baggage check?" said Kenneth.

"It was the mystery object in the pool of blood," explained Thatcher kindly. "It must have fallen out of your pocket," he went on to Schneider, "and then the blood coagulated around it."

"After a week, I couldn't stand

Many Up in Arms Over Guard Slash

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the nation's governors are up in arms over an Army plan for cutting out 475 of the states' National Guard units.

A barrage of telephone calls, telegrams and statements hit the Pentagon after the Army's National Guard Bureau Wednesday sent out the plan to all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

One of the many objectors, Iowa's Gov. Norman Erbe, interpreted the action as an order and said he would not comply.

Caught in the middle was Maj. Gen. Donald W. McGowan, chief of the National Guard Bureau, who was carrying out Pentagon orders to reduce the Guard by about 33,000.

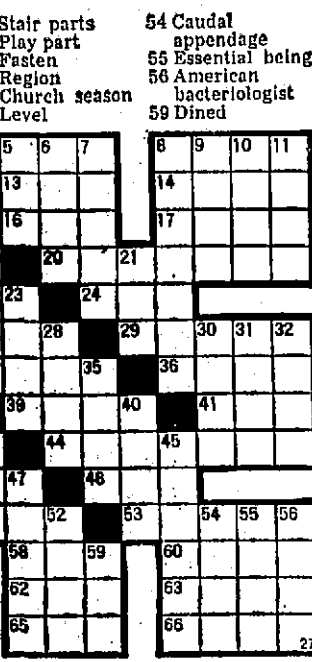

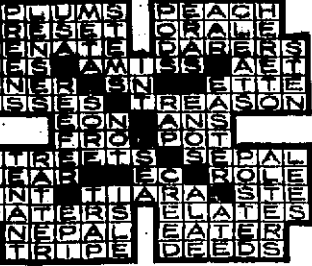

McGowan said the plan was a proposal, not an order, and he stressed that law requires approval by a governor before a unit in his state may be altered or disbanded.

Many of the governors said flatly they would refuse to accept. Govs. John M. Dalton of Missouri and John Anderson of Kansas said they would refuse to release any Guard units.

The program of cut-backs is part of a general reorganization of the Army Reserve and Guard

Lary Appears in Trouble, So Are Tigers

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers may be in trouble, Frank Lary is. And it follows that if Lary is in trouble the Tiger situation is less than the best.

"He'll be out a week as far as we can tell right now," Tiger trainer Jack Hume said Thursday after the Detroit pitching ace failed to last two innings as the Tigers beat Kansas City 11-7.

Lary, who won 23 games with the Tigers last season and has a life-long habit of beating the New York Yankees, retired with an inflamed shoulder after allowing the A's a single run in the first and four in the second.

The Tigers, however, roared back with a seven-run seventh inning to post their triumph. Cleveland took the Los Angeles Angels 6-4, Boston edged Washington 8-7 and Minnesota got past Baltimore 3-2 in the others. The Chicago White Sox and New York were not scheduled.

Milwaukee bombed Philadelphia 6-4, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Chicago's Cubs 12-5 and St. Louis beat Houston 3-2 in the only National League games on schedule.

Lary's shoulder first started to bother him early in spring training and he was ineffective in Florida. The pain went away just before the season started, but he

State Clobbers St. Louis U.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Gary Huffstutler allowed only five scattered hits Thursday as the Arkansas State Indians clobbered St. Louis University 8-1 in an inter-sectional baseball game.

The victory was the second in as many days for the Indians over the Missourians.

Huffstutler aided his own cause going two for three at bat and scoring three runs.

Teammate Sammy Ward went two for two at bat, scored four runs and stole three bases. In addition, Ward halted an eighth inning St. Louis rally by grabbing a line drive against the centerfield wall.

had a relapse last Saturday when he was beaten by Boston.

Hank Aguirre 1-0, last of three Detroit pitchers, benefitted by the big seventh inning uprising and stopped the A's on one hit over the last four innings. The Tigers trailed 7-1 going into the seventh but sent 11 batters to the plate, and seven hit safely.

Manny Jimenez cracked two homers for Kansas City and Bob Del Greco one. Toothpick Sam Jones, who relieved Lary in the second, hit the first homer of his long career in the second.

Cleveland retained first place with its come-from-behind victory over the Angels. Willie Kirkland's two-run single in the seventh brought the Indians from behind a 4-3 deficit. Ronkie Sam McDowell 1-0, won in relief, while Ryne Duren 1-2 was the loser.

Camilo Pascual 3-1 was tough when he had to be, stranding nine runners and striking out seven, in going the distance the third time this season for the Twins' triumph over Baltimore. A two-base error, singles by Bob Allison, Earl Battey and Pascual put the Twins out in front 2-0 in the second and they took it from there. Gus Triandos hit his fourth homer of the year for the Orioles.

Lu Clinton's two-out pinch-hit single in the eighth drove in the winning run for Boston in a wild game with the Senators that produced 26 hits, 17 walks and 29 men left on base. Clinton's hit drove in Carroll Hardy and broke a 7-7 tie that had existed since the fourth inning. Chuck Cottler's three-run double in the third was Washington's big hit.

NCAA Plans Full Control of Sports

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association is going full speed ahead with its plan for new national federations to control basketball, track and gymnastics programs in the United States.

A special NCAA committee set up to study establishing new federations submitted its report to the 18-member council Thursday.

NCAA Executive Director Walt Byers said the council was "gratified and pleased" by the report which showed the movement "is receiving the enthusiastic support that it deserves."

The Council continues its session today. It is expected to make public tonight the recommendations of its infractions committee, although Byers—as he does every year—says no penalties are in sight.

Two Big Eight Conference members, Colorado and Missouri, are expected to be disciplined by the NCAA for illegal recruiting procedures and the operation of "slush funds."

The Amateur Athletic Union is bitterly opposed to the NCAA-backed federations for track, basketball and gymnastics. The federations would in effect replace the AAU, although Byers said there is a spot for the AAU in the new group.

Younger Aaron Bats Braves to Victory

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Imagine a king-size Hank Aaron—that's younger brother Tommie. While Hammerin' Hank continued his efforts to shake a slump, Tommie drilled a single, triple and homer, drove in four runs and scored three himself in a standout one-man show that led Milwaukee to a 10-4 triumph over Philadelphia Thursday.

It gave Tommie, 22, a 6-for-17 batting record and a .353 average in his bid to grab a regular berth alongside Hank, 28, bogged down at .224 with 11 hits in 49 at-bats. Hank was 1-for-3 against the Phils.

Hillie and Tommy Davis—no relation—each stroked three hits in the Los Angeles Dodgers 12-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis' Bob Gibson lost his no-hitter in the eighth inning but wound up with a two-hitter as the Cards edged Houston 3-2 in the only other game scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit outslugged Kansas City 11-7, Cleveland whipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-4, Minnesota edged Baltimore 3-2 and Boston defeated Washington 8-7. The other clubs were not scheduled.

The Braves put it out of reach in the fourth inning, striking for four runs — three on Tommy Aarons homer. That gave Bob Hendley (2-1) all the working room he needed, although Hank Fischer came on to finish up when Hendley tired in the eighth. Phils starter Jack Hamilton (4-2) was the loser.

Willie Davis hit consecutive homers in the sixth and seventh innings and got home run support from Frank Howard and Daryl Spencer as the Dodgers blasted Cubs starter Dick Ellisworth (2-2) and three successors for 14 hits. Tommy Davis had a single, double and triple. Ron Perranoski (3-0) picked up the victory in relief.

Gibson had his no-hitter broken when Roman Mepias hit the first pitch in the eighth inning for a homer. One out later Al Heist singled for the only other hit off the Cardinal right-hander, who had lost in his only previous decision this year. Gibson had allowed a run in the second when Jim Pennington walked, moved to third on two infield outs and scored on a wild pitch.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, got
